ONLY ONE FAVORITE WINS IN RACES AT BENNINGS

St. Juvenal Captures the Fifth Race and Talent Cash Their First Bet of the Day-Conkling Defeats Sais by Two Lengths.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BENNINGS RACE TRACK, April One of the most interesting cards of the meeting was offered to-day and as a result a large crowd came to the course with the hope of seeing some exciting sport. The race which brought about or promised a meeting between Conkling and Sals was deemed the best of the day. Washingtonians have come to regard him as invincible. Conkling was also named to go in the opening dash, handicap at six and a half furiongs but in this race he was awarded top weight of 120 pounds, and as he is little horse there was a doubt as to whether he would start.
